The Household Redundancy Ledger

An analog system for digital people

Most of what you would need in an outage lives on a phone that may be dead, or in an account you cannot reach. This is the paper copy. Fill it in once, keep it somewhere everyone can find, and check it twice a year.

> Nothing on this sheet is sent anywhere. It is a blank form — we never see what you write on it.

SECTION 1

Your people

Everyone in the household, plus one contact who lives far enough away to still have phone service.

NAME	MOBILE	RELATIONSHIP	NOTES

SECTION 2

Where we meet

Two places: one close enough to walk to, one outside the neighborhood in case you cannot get back.

WHICH ONE	ADDRESS OR LANDMARK	WHO KNOWS IT

SECTION 3

Utilities and accounts

The numbers you cannot look up when the power is out — and where the shutoffs are.

UTILITY OR ACCOUNT	PROVIDER	ACCOUNT NUMBER	SHUTOFF / METER LOCATION

SECTION 4

Medical

Medications, doses and pharmacy. Worth having on paper if someone else has to fill a prescription for you.

PERSON	MEDICATION	DOSE / SCHEDULE	PRESCRIBER / PHARMACY

NOTES

SECTION 5

Documents

Not the documents themselves — just what exists and where it lives.

DOCUMENT	WHERE IT LIVES	COPY ELSEWHERE?

SECTION 6

Supplies on hand

What you actually have today, not what you mean to buy. Update it when it changes.

WHAT	HOW MUCH	WHERE STORED	CHECKED ON
